CPT Robert K. McCartney Virginia National Guard Liaison / Military Science Instructor

Captain Robert McCartney commissioned into the Virginia Army National Guard as an Ordnance officer from the ROTC program at Christopher Newport University in 2017. As a civilian career, Captain McCartney was a police officer for the City of Newport News. He served as a patrol officer from December 2017 to February 2021, and was a member of the Tactical Operations Unit from July 2019 to February 2021.

Captain McCartney was assigned as the Maintenance Platoon Leader for the 3647th Maintenance Company in the Virginia National Guard. He would also serve as the Headquarters Platoon Leader for the same Company. Captain McCartney was then assigned as an instructor at the Virginia National Guard Officer Candidate School at Fort Pickett, Va. He then started his Active Guard Reserve position at Virginia Military Institute in March of 2021. He is assigned as the Virginia National Guard Liaison and is a Military Science II Instructor.
