

Excerpt from the book by Joseph R. Anderson,
Jr., published in 1920.

RECORD OF SERVICE
IN THE
WORLD WAR
OF
V. M. I. ALUMNI AND THEIR
ALMA MATER

COMPILED BY THE HISTORIOGRAPHER
OF THE
VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE
1920

CASUALTIES.

KILLED IN ACTION, OR DIED IN THE SERVICE.

(List not yet complete.)

- First Lieutenant Gail H. Alexander 1899, from Danville, Va. 47th Infantry, 4th Division. Killed in action at Bazoches, near the Vesle River, France, August 7, 1918.
- First Lieutenant Thomas D. Amory 1916, from Wilmington, Del. 26th Regular Inf., 1st Div. Killed in action leading assaulting platoon ahead of his regiment, near Verdun, October 2, 1918. Awarded, posthumously, the D. S. C., and recommended for the "Medal of Honour." He was incapacitated for duty (walking with a limp from a wound previously received) when he was killed, but he insisted on returning to duty. He was called the bravest and best beloved member of his battalion.
- First Lieutenant J. Favre Baldwin 1912, from Tyler, Texas. Surgeon, "Royal Fusiliers," B. E. F. Killed in action in France, August 7, 1918.
- Private Archibald W. Benhers 1919, from Ambler, Pa. U. S. Marine Corps. Died, July 3, 1918, of wounds received in action in France, June 3, 1918. (He had received a commission of 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. M. C. Reserve, but resigned and went into the ranks, in order to get quickly to the front with the regulars. He had been selected for the Officers' Training School in France when he made the Supreme Sacrifice.)
- Lieutenant Col. Charles M. Blackford 1897, from Staunton, Va. 75th U. S. Infantry. Died in the Service of pneumonia following influenza, at Camp Lewis, Washington State, January 18, 1919.
- Private Mahlon W. Caffee.... 1906, from Carthage, Mo. Officers' Training School. Died of pneumonia, superinduced by an accident incurred in the Service, December 30, 1918.
- Sergeant Irwin A. Carroll... 1913, from Beaumont, Texas. Officers' Training School. Died in the Service, at College Station, Texas, Oct. 9, 1918.
- Private Middleton Chambers. 1908, from Richmond, Va. Air Service, U. S. A. Died of pneumonia following influenza, just before receiving a commission, March 8, 1919.
- Captain Robert Y. Conrad... 1905, from Winchester, Va. Co. "I," 116th Infantry. Killed in action, battle of the Marne, Oct. 12, 1918. Awarded, posthumously, the D. S. C.
- Corporal James L. Corey.... 1917, from Argos, Ind. U. S. Marine Corps. Killed in action at Chateau Thierry, July 19, 1918.
- Sergeant Joseph R. Cushman 1915, from Bedford Village, N. Y. Co. "K," 107th Inf. Killed in action near Coulet, France, Sept. 29, 1918.

86 VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE—WORLD WAR RECORD

CASUALTY

Second Lieutenant Frank Cutchins	1914, from Richmond, Va. 309th Engineers. Died in the Service in France of pneumonia following influenza, December 26, 1918.	Major E. Hammon
Private Powhatan R. Dance..	1920, from Richmond, Va. U. S. M. C. Killed in action in France, November 1, 1918.	Captain Gustav K
Captain George F. Dashiell..	1919, from Smithfield, Va. M. G. Co., 11th Inf. Killed in action near Souppy, in the Argonne, by bursting of a shell (which also killed other members of his Company), Nov. 10, 1918.	Ensign (Color-Bea sell A. Kelly ...
Major A. Wood Dillard.....	1913, from Baltimore, Md. Inspector General's Department. (Late Captain of Infantry, A. E. F.) Accidentally killed at Nashville, Tenn., his Post, January 9, 1919. Previously awarded the D. S. C.	Captain B. V. M. I
First Lieutenant James H. Drake, Jr.	1901, from Richmond, Va. 24th London Regiment, B. E. F. Died in a London Hospital from the effects of wounds, gas attacks, and extraordinary hardships, during his service at the front since 1916, September 23, 1918.	Captain Atwell T.
First Lieutenant James H. Ewell, Jr.	1909, from Goliad, Texas. C. A., U. S. A., A. E. F. First officer commanding a Battery of Anti-Aircraft Artillery. Died of pneumonia while returning to France with troops he had trained for his branch of the Service, as his ship sighted Brest, October 18, 1918.	First Lieutenant I Massie
First Lieutenant Alexander H. Fraser	1908, from San Antonio, Texas. Aviation Service, U. S. A. Died in the Service of pneumonia following influenza, at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, Oct 28, 1918.	Private Eugene N.
Captain Jesse H. Fugate, Jr..	1916, from Reed Island, Va. U. S. M. C. Died at his Post at Santiago, D. R., of pneumonia, January 9, 1919. About to be promoted to Major for distinguished service.	Brigadier Genl. R Michie
Captain Howard F. Gill.....	1914, from Petersburg, Va. C. A., U. S. A. Died in the Service at Fort Monroe, Va., of pneumonia following influenza, Oct. 14, 1918.	Pharmacist Mate, Carter Milam .
Sergeant Walter S. Goddard.	1910, from Washington, N. C. Co. "I," 119th Infantry, 30th Division, A. E. F. Killed in action at battle of Ypres, Sept., 1, 1918.	First Lieutenant (C Minton
Private T. Sheafe Haskell...	1907, from Derby Line, Vt. Officers' Training School at Plattsburg, N. Y. Died from effects of an accident while in training, summer of 1917.	Second Lieutenant W. Murphy ...
First Lieutenant Edward T. Hathaway.....	1915, from Oklahoma City, Okla. Pilot, Air Service, A. E. F. Killed in action in France, June 25, 1918.	First Lieutenant J ray McClellan .
Private Peter P. Homes.....	1912, from Lunenburg County, Va. Died while a candidate for commission at O. T. School at Camp Lee, Va., Feb. 27, 1918.	First Lieutenant A McClintock ...
Lieutenant Richard J. Howard	1914, from St. Louis, Mo. "Black Watch," B. E. F. Killed in action in France, March 17, 1916. Awarded the "Victoria Cross" (posthumously).
Captain William H. Humphreys	1915, from Crozet, Va. 58th Infantry. Killed in action at the Argonne, France, October 4, 1918.
Captain Bartlett James.....	Va., 1915. U. S. A. Died at his Post, Columbus, N. M., Oct. 24, 1917.

CASUALTIES: KILLED, OR DIED IN SERVICE (Cont'd) 87

- Major E. Hammond Johnson. 1904, from Norfolk, Va. 112th Infantry. With Army of Occupation. Died suddenly of apoplexy at his Post in Germany (Cochem), May 17, 1919.
- Captain Gustav Karow..... Ga., 1916. U. S. M. Corps. Killed in the line of duty at his Post at Paris Island, S. C., June 25, 1920, by falling to earth with his burning plane.
- Ensign (Color-Bearer) Russell A. Kelly 1914, from Cedarhurst, N. Y. French Foreign Legion. Mortally wounded at Givanchy, France, and died, June 7, 1915.
- Captain B. V. M. La Rue.... 1896, from Kansas City, Mo. 335th Infantry, 89th Division, A. E. F. Died in the Service in France of pneumonia following influenza, 1918.
- Captain Atwell T. Lincoln... 1897, from Columbus, Miss., and later, St. Louis, Mo. Co. "B" (M. G. Co.), 354th Inf., 89th Division. Killed in action at the St. Mihiel Salient, September 18, 1918.
- First Lieutenant Hope W. Massie 1918, from Tyro, Va. 119th Infantry. Killed while on patrol in France, August 6th, 1918. "You fellows are married, I am the one to go." A comrade wrote: "He had the perfect faith—and died that others might live."
- Private Eugene N. Mayer... 1912, from Norfolk, Va. (later, from Bristol, Va.). Officers' Training School at Camp Johnston. Died of pneumonia following influenza in the Service, at Camp Johnston, October 21, 1918.
- Brigadier Genl. R. E. L. Michle 1883, from Albemarle County, Va. U. S. Army. Died in the Service in France very suddenly, of disease, June 5, 1918.
- Pharmacist Mate, 2nd Class, Carter Milam 1914, from Nashville, Tenn. U. S. Navy. Died aboard U. S. S. Louisville, just after the ship reached Brest, France, September 29, 1918, of pneumonia following influenza. (Body sent home and interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Nashville, Tenn.)
- First Lieutenant Charles A. Minton 1909, from New York City. Co. "I," 305th Infantry, 77th Division. Died of pneumonia, in France, Oct. 18, 1918.
- Second Lieutenant Richard W. Murphy 1916, from Greensboro, Ala. U. S. Marine Corps. Mortally wounded at Chateau Thierry Salient, and died June —, 1918.
- First Lieutenant John Murray McClellan 1916, from Richmond, Va. U. S. M. C. Killed in action at Vierzy, France, July 19, 1918. Awarded the Croix de Guerre (posthumously) by Marshal Petain, Commander-in-Chief of the French Armies of the East.
- First Lieutenant Alexander McClintock 1913, from Lexington, Ky. Infantry, U. S. A. (Previously for two years a Sergeant in the B. E. F.) Died in New York, from effects of wounds received in action and hard service in France with the British Expeditionary Force, June 28, 1918. Awarded the British Distinguished Service Cross by King George, personally, for bringing from the field two wounded comrades when he himself was badly wounded.

88 VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE—WORLD WAR RECORD

- First Lieutenant James A. Pigue 1905, from Nashville, Tenn. 117th Inf. Killed in action on the Marne, July 18, 1918.
- First Lieutenant Rodney W. Polack 1908, from York, Pa. 60th Inf., 5th Div. Killed in action in France, October 14th, 1918.
- Private Edmund L. Rapkin. 1919, from Montclair, N. J. Co. "L," 107th Infantry. Died in the Service at Army Hospital, Blois, France, of pneumonia following influenza, October 31, 1918.
- Captain J. N. C. Richards... 1914, from Riverton, Va. Co. "F," 26th Inf., 1st Division. Killed in action in France, Soissons, France, July 19, 1918. D. S. C., awarded posthumously.
- Lieutenant Kiffin Y. Rockwell 1912, from Asheville, N. C. Aviation Service, B. E. F. Killed in action in France, September 23, 1916. He had been decorated twice.
- Private Edward Marcus Smith 1914, from Valdosta, Ga. Emergency Medical Reserve Corps, U. S. A. Died of pneumonia following influenza while ministering to those stricken with the disease, in Philadelphia, Pa., October 7, 1918. The Dean of the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania said: "He died a martyr to duty as fully as the soldier who sacrificed his life on the field of battle."
- Second Lieutenant Vernon L. Somers 1915, from Bloxom, Va. U. S. M. C. Killed in action in the Chateau Thierry Salient, June 6, 1918. The D. S. C. and Navy Cross awarded him, posthumously.
- Captain Hugh Stockdell..... 1897, from Petersburg, Va. Commanding the Richmond M. G. Co. (For Local Defense.) Died of pneumonia following influenza, while earnestly and indefatigably training this Company for possible future National Service, December 25, 1918. (Name of Co. changed to "Hugh Stockdell M. G. Co.")
- Second Lieutenant Melville E. Sullivan 1917, from Richmond, Va. U. S. M. C., Aviation Section. Killed, while flying in Florida, May 7, 1918.
- Field Clerk Benjamin T. Tinsley 1901, from Salem, Va. With A. E. F. Died in the Service in France, March 19, 1918.
- Captain John B. Tomlinson.. 1917, from Birmingham, Ala. 18th Infantry, 1st Division. Died in the Service at the Hospital at Langres, France, Oct. 14, 1918, from the effects of having been gassed on May 1st and again early in October, 1918, in the Argonne.
- First Lieutenant James A. Van Sant 1918, Mt. Sterling, Ky. 41st Infantry. Died in the Service in France of disease, November 9, 1919.
- Yeoman, 3rd Class, William H. Waggoner, Jr. 1910, from Independence, Mo. U. S. Navy-Reserve Force. Died of pneumonia following influenza, at Great Lakes, Illinois, while in training, September 23, 1918.

CASUALTIES:

Captain Edward

Lieutenant William
leyFirst Lieutenant
Wright

WOU:

Captain Fred. W

Field Clerk Eug
Adkins
Major George M
Alexander ...1st Lieutenant
Allison

Major Edward M

1st Lieutenant Amory1st Lieutenant
Angle

RECORD

117th Inf. Killed
7 18, 1918.
5th Div. Killed
r 14th, 1918.
o. "L," 107th In-
at Army Hospimonia following

"F," 26th Inf., 1st
on at Soissons,
S. C., awarded

Aviation Service,
France, Septem-
decorated twice.
ergency Medical
ed of pneumonia ministering to isease, in Phila-
8. The Dean of the University of ied a martyr to er who sacrificed

M. C. Killed in
ry Salient, June
and Navy Cross

Commanding the Local Defense.)
owing influenza,
atigably training future National (Name of Co.
M. G. Co.)

S. M. C., Aviation
; in Florida, May

A. E. F. Died in ch 19, 1918.

18th Infantry, Service at the e, Oct. 14, 1918,
been gassed on
n October, 1918,

Infantry. Died
disease, Novem-

o. U. S. Navy-monia following Illinois, while in

CASUALTIES: KILLED, OR DIED IN SERVICE (Cont'd)—WOUNDED 89

- Captain Edward L. Wells.... 1907, from Charleston, S. C. 2nd M. G. Battalion, 1st Brigade, 1st Division. Killed in action near Exermont, France, October 4, 1918. Twice promoted for gallantry. Specially commended for conspicuous bravery by both his Brigade and Division Commanders. Awarded, posthumously, both the D. S. C. (twice) and the Croix de Guerre.
General Parker, his Brigade Commander, in a letter to the Mayor of Charleston, said the City ought to raise a monument to his memory.
- Lieutenant William Wheat- 1871, from Washington, D. C. U. S. Navy—ley Reserve Force. Died in the Service, of disease, January 29, 1918.
- First Lieutenant Crispin 1904, from Pittsylvania Co., Va. Surgeon, 41st Wright Division. (Western troops.) A. E. F. Died from effects of the Service at the front, in U. S. General Hospital No. 19, at Oteen, N. C., February 22, 1920.

WOUNDED, OR SERIOUSLY GASSED, IN ACTION.

(List not complete.)

- Captain Fred. W. Adams.... 1909, from Kansas City, Mo. 85th Inf., 18th
Div. Slightly wounded in action in France, July 20, 1918, but not evacuated from the field. Automatically assumed command of his Company, July 19th, when all other officers became casualties. Awarded the D
S. C. and Croix de Guerre.
- Field Clerk Eugene M. 1920, from Lynchburg, Va. Gassed at Metz Adkins Alsace, —, 1918.
- Major George Murrell 1909, from Lynchburg, Va. 116th Infantry.
Alexander Wounded in action in France, October 11, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant Wesley R. 1916, from Rosemont, Pa. Royal Flying Corps, Allison 208th Squadron; later, 65th Squadron. Shot down, wounded, July 9, 1918. Shot down, wounded, August 10, 1918 (in Hospital).
Machine came apart in air, Dec. 15, 1918,
and in Hospital from the fall until April, 1919.
- Major Edward M. Almond... 1915, from Orange, Va. Captain Co. "A," 12th
M. G. Battalion, 4th Division. Slightly wounded in action at battle of Vesle River,
—, 1918. Promoted Major.
- 1st Lieutenant Thomas D. 1916, from Wilmington, Del. 26th (Regular) Amory (Infantry). Severely wounded in action at Montdidier, France, May 24, 1918. (Returned to trenches in August, and was killed in action, October 2, 1918.) Awarded the D. S. C., posthumously. Recommended for the "Medal of Honour."
- 1st Lieutenant James M. 1906, from Pittsburgh, Pa. Required to under-Angle go operation from disease incurred in the Service, Nov. 26, 1918, and long in Hospital.

Sergeant Eugene H. Ashley..	1915, from Valdosta, Ga. Co. "H," 109th Infantry. Slightly wounded in action at battle of Marne, July —, 1918.	Captain Fred.
2d Lieutenant Samuel L. Austin.....	1920, from Chicago, Ill. A. S., U. S. A. Injured by an accident with his plane and thus prevented from going overseas.	Major Joseph
1st Lieutenant English Bagby	Ph. D., Adjunct Professor, V. M. I., from Maryland. Sanitary Corps and assigned to Air Service, U. S. A. Later, Commanding Officer, Medical Research Laboratory at Kelly Field. Still later, Adjutant of Medical Research Laboratory at Hazelhurst Field. Injured in line of duty, July 26, 1917, while serving in Ambulance Corps, U. S. A.	Major Philip
1st Lieutenant Raymond M. Battea	1915, from Smithfield, Va. Aviation Service, A. E. F. Terribly gassed while serving with French and American Forces.	Captain B. All
Private Alden Bell.....	1880, from Culpeper, Va. 116th Inf. and 10th Engineers, A. E. F. Twice gassed in action and blinded for four months. (Aged 57 years.)	Sergeant Alex verse
Captain Stanton L. Bertschey	1918, from Phoebus, Va. 6th Infantry, 5th Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action in France —, 1918.
1st Lieutenant Ernest C. Brown	1917, from Knoxville, Tenn. Adjutant, 117th Infantry, 30th Division. Severely wounded in action at —, —, 1918.
1st Lieutenant Foster V. Brown, Jr.	1912, from Chattanooga, Tenn. Co. "F," 28th Infantry. Severely wounded in action at the battle of the Marne, July —, 1918. Awarded Croix de Guerre with Palm.	Major H. I. T.
1st Lieutenant Jack W. Burress	1918, from Richmond, Va. 371st Infantry. Severely wounded in action in Champagne Sector, France, September 30, 1918. (Wounded four times the same day.)	1st Lieutenant Crockett, J
1st Lieutenant Claude R. Cammer	1915, from Winchester, Va. Acting Captain, — M. G. Battn, 1st Division. Gassed, May 28, 1918, at Cantigny, and seriously wounded twice in action in France, July 18, 1918, at —, and permanently disabled.	1st Lieutenant Crockett ..
1st Lieutenant A. Horace Campbell	1918, from New York City. Co. "L," 317th Inf., 80th Division. Severely wounded in action at —, —, 1918.	Captain Samu
1st Lieutenant William G. Cann	1909, from Savannah, Ga. 151st M. G. Battalion, 42nd Division. Wounded in action at —, France, July —, 1918.	Captain Stua
1st Lieutenant Franklin W. Carter	1912, from Warrenton, Va. M. G. Co., 165th Infantry. Severely wounded in action in Chateau Thierry Sector, France, July 28, 1918, and in Hospital over a year. Permanently disabled. Awarded the D. S. C.	Captain Edwa
Major Turner M. Chambliss.	1914, from North Emporia, Va. Infantry. Wounded severely in action at —, France, —, 1918.	Captain Ralpi
Captain Camillus Christian..	1914, from Lynchburg, Va. 363rd Infantry, 91st Division. Severely gassed in action in Argonne Forest.

WAR RECORD

CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Continued)

91

Co. "H," 109th Infantry, wounded in action at battle 18.

A. S., U. S. A. Injured in his plane and thus overseas.

V. M. I., from Maryland and assigned to Air Service, Commanding Officer, Laboratory at Kelly Field, Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. In July 26, 1917, while in service, U. S. A.

Aviation Service, assigned while serving in the Air Force.

116th Inf. and 10th Cavalry gassed in action months. (Aged 57)

6th Infantry, 5th Cavalry wounded in action, 1918.

Adjutant, 117th Cavalry Severely wounded in action, 1918.

Co. "F," 28th Infantry, wounded in action at battle of Belleau Wood, July 1918. (Wounded with Palm.)

371st Infantry, wounded in action near Meuse, July 30, 1918. (Wounded.)

Acting Captain, 1st Division. Gassed, severely, and seriously wounded in France, July 18, 1918. Permanently disabled.

Co. "L," 317th Inf., wounded in action

151st M. G. Battalion, wounded in action at battle of Belleau Wood, 1918.

M. G. Co., 165th Infantry, wounded in action in France, July 28, 1918. Perma- nently disabled the D. S. C.

1st Division, Va. Infantry, action at Belleau Wood,

363rd Infantry, gassed in action

- Captain Fred. W. Clarke, Jr. 1917, from Savannah, Ga. U. S. Marine Corps. Wounded slightly in action, April 13, 1918. Again wounded in action, near Metz, July 19th, 1918.
- Major Joseph T. Clement.... 1906, from Charleston, S. C. 39th Infantry. Severely wounded near Ourcq River, July 18, 1918. Awarded Croix de Guerre with Silver Star.
- Major Philip Caldwell..... 1910, from El Paso, Texas. Infantry. Stationed in Philippines till June, 1918. On his return then to U. S., was stationed at Camp Grant and commanded 3rd Regiment (4,000) of Depot Brigade, and for one month commanded the Camp (35,000 men). While there was severely injured by an Army truck and confined in Hospital eight months.
- Captain B. Allison Colonna.. 1914, from Washington, D. C. A. E. F. Severely wounded in action, 1918.
- Sergeant Alexander J. Converse 1909, from Columbus, Ohio. 48th Battalion, Canadian Infantry, B. E. F., and later, 2nd Battalion. Slightly wounded, Messines Sector; severely wounded, Ypres Sector; wounded Lens Sector. Many months in Hospital, but voluntarily returned to the front after receiving two last wounds, against protest of the Surgeons. Served to end of War. Still disabled (February, 1920.) Served nearly four years overseas.
- Major H. I. T. Creswell..... 1913, from San Francisco, Calif. Wounded in action in France, July 30, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant George S. Crockett, Jr. 1919, from Accomac, Va. Air Service, A. E. F. Slightly injured when Plane caught afire 2,000 feet up and he side-slipped to earth; machine destroyed. Commissioned Captain, A. S. R. C., upon discharge.
- 1st Lieutenant Gilman K. Crockett 1912, from Bedford City, Va. 9th M. G. Battalion, 3rd Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action near Chateau Thierry, July 15th, and wounded again seriously, Oct. 9, 1918, in Argonne Offensive.
- Captain Samuel C. Cumming. 1917, from Hampton, Va. U. S. M. C. Wounded in action at Bois de Belleau, France, June 11, 1918.
- Captain Stuart Cutler..... 1918, from New York City. 23rd (Regular) Infantry, A. E. F. Severely gassed in action, April 1918. Invalided home—lungs seriously affected, but after many months in Hospital partially recovered and returned to duty.
- Captain Edward T. Davant.. 1911, from Roanoke, Va. 315th M. G. Battalion, 80th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action north of Sommerance, France, Nov. 1, 1918.
- Captain Ralph M. Davenport. 1911, from Denver, Col. Infantry, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action in France, 1918.

92 VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE—WORLD WAR RECORD

- Sergeant Walter E. Denny... 1912, from Newellton, La. Instructor, B. E. F. Wounded in action on the Somme, September 15-16, 1917. Captain Larkin W. brook, Jr.
- Major A. Wood Dillard..... 1913, from Baltimore, Md. Captain, Regular Infantry, A. E. F. Severely gassed in action, _____, 1918. (Subsequently accidentally killed.)
- Lt. Colonel John W. Downer.. 1902, from Norfolk, Va. F. A., A. E. F. Wounded, Spring of 1918. Again hit by bullets and severely gassed, while commanding a battalion of Artillery in support of an extensive raid, near Beaumont, France, March 11, 1918. Received D. S. C. and Croix de Guerre for gallantry in this action, and later, Cross of Legion of Honour.
- Major Richard B. Dunbar.. 1908, from Augusta, Ky. 111th Engineers. A. E. F. Slightly gassed in St. Mihiel Offensive. Captain Benjamin . man
- Captain Charles A. Etheridge. 1915, from Norfolk, Va. U. S. M. C. Wounded in action in Chateau Thierry Sector, July _____, 1918. 1st Lieutenant Mil Guthrie
- 2nd Lieutenant Preston K. Faison 1917, from Goldsboro, N. C. 60th Infantry, 5th Div., A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in France, September 16, 1918, at Bois de Bon Vaux, St. Mihiel Offensive. Captain J. Addisor
- 1st Lieutenant John H. Fechheimer 1918, from New York City. 165th Infantry, 42nd Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in St. Mihiel Drive, September 28, 1918. 1st Lieutenant Will Haley, Jr.
- 2nd Lieutenant Joseph H. Garnett, Jr. 1910, from Gainesville, Texas. Air Service, A. E. F. Fell over 500 feet in his Plane and sustained serious injuries. Right arm shattered. In Walter Reed Hospital as late as February, 1920. 2nd Lieutenant T Hamlin, Jr. ...
- Captain Willis A. Garvey.... 1918, from Topeka, Kansas. Battery "F," 15th F. A., 2nd Div., A. E. F. While acting as Liaison Officer in the fighting before Rheims, Oct. 3-9, 1918, was slightly wounded, October 7th. Captain G. M. Har
- Captain Lester T. Gayle, Jr.. 1912, from Portsmouth, Va. 26th Infantry, 1st Division, A. E. F. Transferred to Air Service. Severely injured in line of duty, when his Plane fell to the earth. Many months in Hospital, and finally retired from the Service by action of Medical Board, November, 1919, permanently disabled. Appointed Q. M. at V. M. I., 1920. Captain Jack S. Ha
- Captain Gustave R. Gerson.. 1912, from Houston, Texas. Medical Corps, B. E. F. Wounded in action, while serving with the Scotch Highlanders. Decorated for conspicuous gallantry, and transferred to A. E. F., and promoted. Major Jack Hastie,
- 2nd Lieutenant He Hordern

CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Continued)

93

- Captain Larkin W. Glaze- 1918, from Washington, D. C. F. A., A. E. F.
brook, Jr. Wounded in action about July 21, 1918.
Later, in St. Mihiel Sector when his horse was killed under him, was seriously hurt, and next day was severely gassed. Removed to Hospital, and, when he found himself alone, escaped, and again went into the battle nearby, and was again gassed. When he was returned to the Hospital he was severely reprimanded and promoted! Invalided home and long in Hospital. (At the first Fort Myer Officers' Training School he stood first among the 400 candidates there, and first among the 140 who passed the final test and were recommended for commissions.
- Captain Benjamin A. Good- 1917, from Norfolk, Va. U. S. M. C. Wounded man in action in France, ———, 1918. Ordered home, and assigned to command of S. A. T. C. at V. M. I.
- 1st Lieutenant Milton M. 1912, from Nashville, Tenn. F. A., A. E. F.
Guthrie Slightly wounded in action in Picardy,
Spring of 1918.
- Captain J. Addison Hagan.. 1916, from Richmond, Va. U. S. M. C., A. E. F.
Severely wounded in action, June 11, 1918, at Belleau Wood. After suffering for more than a year, he was retired by a Medical Board, with the rank of Captain.
- 1st Lieutenant William A. 1918, from Clifton Forge, Va. Infantry, 80th Haley, Jr. Division, A. E. F. Wounded at ———, 1918.
- 2nd Lieutenant Thomas 1909, from Danville, Va. Light Tank Service, Hamlin, Jr. A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action in the Argonne Forest, Oct. 10, 1918, and promoted from Sergeant to 2nd Lieutenant for gallantry.
- Captain G. M. Harrison..... 1907, from Fredericksburg, Va. H. Q. Co., 116th Infantry, 80th Div., A. E. F. Severely wounded in knee in action, October 18, 1918, in the Argonne Offensive, and in Hospital as late as January, 1919. He was the only officer left of his Company, after this terrific drive.
- Captain Jack S. Hart..... 1917, from Weatherford, Texas. U. S. M. C.
Wounded in action at Bois de Belleau, June 24, 1918, and severely gassed, and again wounded in action, Sept. 15, 1918, at St.
Mihiel. Twice cited for extraordinary bravery, and received D. S. C., Croix de Guerre and the Naval Cross, and afterwards the MEDAL OF HONOUR.
- Major Jack Hastie, Jr..... 1912, from Seattle, Wash. 2d Cavalry (Reg.)
A. E. F. Severely gassed in action. Later seriously hurt in victorious inter-allied Polo Contest in Paris. Invalided home.
- 2nd Lieutenant Herbert R. 1914, from Warrenton, Va., "Irish Guards," Hordern B. E. F. Desperately wounded in the spine in action at Thiepval, France, Aug. 2, 1916, and not entirely recovered, three and a half years later.

94 VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE—WORLD WAR RECORD

- | | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|----------------------------------|
| 1st Lieutenant Richard M. Hull | 1917, from Savannah, Ga. 4th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in France, _____, 1918. | 1st Lieutenant S. A. ridge |
| Captain William H. Humphreys | 1915, from Crozet, Va. 58th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action, July 18, 1918, in Chateau Thierry Sallent. (Subsequently killed in action.) | Major R. G. Lyne |
| Major E. Hammond Johnson | 1904, from Norfolk, Va. 38th Infantry, A. E. F. Wounded in action in the closing days of the War. (Subsequently died in the Service, while with the Army of Occupation.) | 1st Lieutenant George Maclean |
| Captain Charles Johnston | 1902, from Roanoke, Va. 111th Infantry, 28th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action near Fismes, France, August 12, 1918. | Captain Richard J. I |
| 1st Lieut. Catesby Ap C Jones | 1913, from Richmond, Va. 3rd Cavalry, A. E. F. Seriously injured by a kick of his horse (skull cracked), while on duty, and many months in Hospital. Later, invalided home, but finally recovered and returned to duty. Received decoration from Belgium. | Captain Horatio P. Jr. |
| J. Julian Jordan | 1910, from Hinton, W. Va. After serving his term at O. T. School at Fort Benjamin Harrison, at beginning of War, was severely injured in May, 1918, when en route to join his cavalry command. | 1st Lieutenant W. Melton |
| Brig. General Charles E. Kilbourne | 1894, from Washington, D. C. U. S. A., A. E. F. Severely wounded in France, while serving on Staff of Major General Wood, in Spring of 1918. | Captain Edward R. |
| 1st Lieutenant Clarke O. Kimberly | 1915, from Hampton, Va. 12th F. A., A. E. F. Gassed, July 21, 1918, near Vierzy, and three months in Hospital. Three Citations and Croix de Guerre. | 1st Lieutenant James Miller |
| 2nd Lieutenant John B. Kimberly, Jr. | 1917, from Old Point, Va. 343rd F. A., 9th Division, A. E. F. Wounded at St. Mihiel. | 1st Lieutenant J. Miller, Jr. |
| Sergeant Russell B. Kimbley | 1920, from Okmulgee, Okla. 117th Field Battalion, Signal Corps, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in Argonne Offensive. | Captain Morgan R. P |
| Major Matthew H. Kingman | 1913, from Des Moines, Iowa. U. S. M. C. Wounded in action, June 6, 1918, at Belleau Wood. "Croix de Guerre with Palm." | 1st Lieutenant Charles Minton |
| Corporal Harry J. Kittrell | 1916, from Mount Pleasant, Tenn. Co. "L," 117th Infantry, 30th Div., A. E. F. Wounded at Estrees, France. (Taken prisoner, but re-captured same day by his own Company.) | Captain Charles Elle |
| Captain B. V. M. La Rue | 1896, from Kansas City, Mo. 335th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in Meuse-Argonne Offensive. (Died soon afterwards of pneumonia following influenza.) | Major D. G. Morriss |
| Captain George B. Lockhart | 1917, from Honaker, Va. U. S. M. C., A. E. F. Wounded and gassed in action in the fighting of the Marines, June 2-14, 1918. | Captain George G. M |
| Captain William Lohmeyer, Jr. | 1916, from Charleston, W. Va. Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., A. E. F. Very seriously wounded in action near Chateau Thierry, July, 1918. Not yet recovered. | 2nd Lieutenant John Anerney, II. |
| Private William J. Loth, Jr. | 1914, from Waynesboro, Va. British Expeditionary Force. Disabled on Piave River, Italy, and invalided home, after 3 years and 31 days' Service under the British Flag. | 1st Lieutenant Will McCoy |
| | | 2nd Lieutenant Stephen McGiffert |

CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Continued)

95

- 1st Lieutenant S. A. Lough- 1904, from Lexington, Ky. Severely injured ridge by an explosion in the B. E. F.
- Major R. G. Lyne..... 1916, from Orange, Va. Captain of 51st F. A.,
A. E. F. Slightly wounded at St. Mihiel, Sept. 12, 1918, where his battery received special mention. Promoted soon afterwards.
- 1st Lieutenant George M. 1910, from Savannah, Ga. Tank Corps, A. E. F.
Maclean..... Wounded in action at ———, France, ———, 1918.
- Captain Richard J. Marshall. 1915, from Portsmouth, Va. Commanding 6th
F. A., 1st Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded, Nov. 1, 1918, in Meuse-Argonne Offensive, and in Hospital until March 1, 1919.
- Captain Horatio P. Mason, 1917, from Hampton, Va. U. S. Marine Corps.
Jr. Wounded at ———, ———, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant W. F. 1919, from Glen Allen, Va. A. S., A. E. F.
Melton Injured while flying in France.
- Captain Edward R. Michaux. 1917, from Goldsboro, N. C. Co. "L," 60th (Regular) Infantry, 5th Division, A. E. F.
Wounded in action in France at Cunel, October 12, 1918. Cited by a General Officer for conspicuous bravery.
- 1st Lieutenant James A. 1914, from Richmond, Va. 47th (Regular) In-Miller fantry. Severely wounded in two places in action in France, July ———, 1918. Again severely wounded at ———, Sept, ———, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant J. Craig 1916, from Huntington, W. Va. Engineers, Miller, Jr. later, F. A., A. E. F. Severely gassed near Lucy-le-Bocage, June, 1918.
- Captain Morgan R. Mills, Jr. 1917 from Richmond, Va. U. S. Marine Corps,
A. E. F. Wounded in action at Chateau Thierry, June ———, 1918. Decorated.
- 1st Lieutenant Charles A. 1909, from New York City. 305th Infantry, Minton 77th Division, A. E. F. Severely gassed in Meuse-Argonne Offensive, early in October, 1918. (Later died in Service.)
- Captain Charles Ellet Moore. 1913, from Berryville, Va. 23rd Infantry, A.
E. F. Severely wounded at Vaux, July 1, 1918, and still in Hospital, Nov., 1920.
- Major D. G. Morrissett. 1912, from Lynchburg, Va. Ammunition Train, 1st Div., A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Oct.
2, 1918.
- Captain George G. Munce.... 1914, from Richmond, Va. U. S. Marine Corps,
A. E. F. Wounded at St. Etienne, Meuse-Argonne, October 8, 1918. Decorated.
- 2nd Lieutenant John Mc- 1917, from New York City. Co. "B," 107th Anerney, II. Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Sept. 29, 1918.
(Lost an eye.)
- 1st Lieutenant William S. 1909, from Independence, Mo. 355th Infantry, McCoy 89th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded in thigh, Sept 13, 1918, at St. Mihiel, and evacuated from Hospital, December 19, 1918.
- 2nd Lieutenant Stephen Y. 1917, from Duluth, Minn. 319th Infantry, McGiffert A. E. F. Severely wounded at Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Oct. 4, 1918. Invalided home December, 1918, and many months in Hospital.

- Captain John L. McKee..... 1915, from Richmond, Va. 7th Infantry, A. E. F. Disabled when his horse was killed under him in action at Chateau Thierry, June, 1918. Invalided home, Oct. 1918. Returned to duty December, 1918.
- Private John McKinney..... 1916, from Northport, N. Y. Co. "G," 105th Infantry, 27th Div., A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in Flanders, August 31, 1918, battle of Kimmel Hill.
- Major Donald R. McMillen... 1909, from Whitewater, Wis. 9th M. G. Battalion, 3rd Div., A. E. F. Severely gassed twice and evacuated to Hospital, and operated on for appendicitis two days later.
- Lt. Colonel Donald M. McRae. 1912, from Washington, D. C. British Expeditionary Force, from Private to Major. Infantry, A. E. F. from Captain to Lt. Col. Wounded at Vimy Ridge, April 9, 1917, while in the Canadian Army.
- Captain Charles P. Nash.... 1917, from Alderson, W. Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Aviation Section. Shot down with his Plane when 2,000 feet above the earth. Lost an arm, and made prisoner of War, September 13, 1918. Awarded D. S. C.
- Captain James A. Nichols, Jr. 1910, from Petersburg, Va. Acting Battalion Commander, 345th F. A., A. E. F. Wounded three times slightly, near Rheims, July 1, at St. Mihiel, Sept. —, and near Stency, Oct. —, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant J. Christian Nowlin, Jr. 1913, from Lynchburg, Va. 30th Infantry, A. E. F., 3d Division. Severely wounded in action at —, October 9, 1918.
- Corporal B. B. Owens 1914, from Winston-Salem, N. C. First "Royal Fusiliers," B. E. F. Later, M. G. Co., 49th Battalion, H. Q. Section. Blown out of a trench, buried and gassed—all in 24 hours. Severely wounded in action in Belgium, Oct. 7, 1917. Decorated.
- 1st Lieutenant John C. Parker 1914, from Franklin, Va. Pilot in Air Service, A. E. F. 2nd Aviation Centre, Tours, France. Severely injured by defective motor in Plane, causing it to drop to the earth. His life was only saved by his belt breaking, which caused him to fall clear of his machine when it struck the ground.
- Col. George S. Patton, III... 1907, from San Gabriel, Calif. Tank Corps, A. E. F. Seriously wounded in action, September 26th, 1918. Decorated.
- Captain Allan C. Perkinson. 1914, from Petersburg, Va. U. S. Marine Corps. Wounded in action near Soissons, July 19, 1918. Decorated.
- Major James W. Peyton..... 1906, from Charlottesville, Va. Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action at —, France, —, 1918.
- 2nd Lieutenant George E. Pickett, III..... 1916, from Washington, D. C. Quartermaster Corps, A. E. F. Knee crushed and right arm broken, while driving an ambulance in an emergency in France, the day before ordered home. Maimed for life. Still in Walter Reed Hospital, Nov., 1920.

CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Continued)

97

- 1st Lieutenant Reid M. Pierce 1908, from Lynchburg, Va. Infantry, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action at ———, France, ———, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant Washington Reed 1912, from Smithfield, Va. 1st Battalion, 60th Infantry, 5th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded near Pont-a-Mousson, France, Sept. 25, 1918. Three decorations.
- 1st Lieutenant Walter A. Richards 1913, from Clifton Station, Va. Co. "G," 326th Inf., 82nd Div., A. E. F. Twice wounded in action at Aire River, Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Oct. 11, 1918. Second wound very serious, requiring the sixteenth operation, Jan., 1920. (Left arm useless.) Decorated.
- Private Kiffin Y. Rockwell 1912, from Asheville, N. C. French Foreign Legion. Severely wounded at Arras, France, May 9, 1915. (Subsequently killed in Air Service.)
- 2nd Lieutenant Frank E. Schlegel 1917, from Norfolk, Va. 60th Infantry, 5th Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded at ———, France, ———, 1918.
- Amb. Driver Bryan W. Schwartz 1920, from Reading, Pa. Wrist broken in line of duty, Jan. 1, 1918, in France.
- Captain Lemuel C. Shepherd, Jr. 1917, from Norfolk, Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Wounded in neck in action at Chateau Thierry, June 3, again wounded severely in hip at Bois de Belleau, June 7, 1918, having fought four days with bullet in his neck, declining medical treatment for the first wound. Severely wounded the third time at Mont Blanc Ridge, Oct. 8. Two decorations.
- 1st Lieutenant H. C. F. Sitwell 1919, from Bedford, Va. First Pioneer Regiment, A. E. F. Severely gassed in action at ———, France, August ———, 1918.
- 1st Lieutenant Alan M. Smith 1912, from Birmingham, Ala. 167th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in Chateau Thierry Salient July 26, 1918.
- Captain Frank M. Smith 1907, from Rogersville, Tenn. 61st Inf., 5th Div., A. E. F. Wounded near Cunel, France, Oct. 14, 1918. Cited for gallantry by a General Officer.
- Major Walter C. Smith 1909, from Wheeling, W. Va. 319th Inf., A. E. F. Slightly wounded, Argonne Drive.
- 2nd Lieutenant Vernon L. Somers 1915, from Bloxom, Va. Slightly wounded in action in France, May 3, 1918. (Subsequently killed in action.) Decorated posthumously.
- 2nd Lieutenant William G. Speed, Jr. 1918, from Baltimore, Md. Air Service, U. S. A. Maimed for life in aeroplane crash, while instructing students. In Hospital six months. Right leg permanently injured.
- Captain George A. Speer, Jr. 1912, from Atlanta, Ga. Resigned Lieutenantcy in U. S. Army and joined British Expeditionary Force in France. Wounded in action several times. Decorated.
- 1st Lieutenant J. Vincl Stark 1910, from Kansas City, Mo. Adjutant, 3rd Battn., 140th Regular Infantry, A. E. F. Wounded twice, Sept. 26-29, 1918, at the Marne. Lost little finger of right hand, and struck in thigh.

Sergeant Albert L. Taylor..	1910, from Swissvale, Pa. 110th Infantry, A. E. F. Gassed in action at ———, France, Sept. 8, 1918.	Major Rice McNu
Captain James Taylor.....	1918, from Orange, N. J. 301st Battalion, Tank Corps, B. E. F. Wounded in action at Montre Bain, (Somme), October 23, 1918.
John A. Thomas.....	1918, from Scranton, Pa. While serving the Government as Chemist severely injured by poisonous gases, and not recovered until after many months in Hospital.	Captain Charles F
1st Lieutenant James D. Twitty	1901, from Suffolk, Va. A. E. F. Severely gassed and in Hospital many months.
Colonel Edmund C. Waddill..	1903, from Richmond, Va. While commanding Battalion of Infantry in the Chateau Thierry Sector, June 25, 1918, "during a heavy gas attack, disregarding his own danger, he refused to be evacuated until he was so badly gassed that his face was black." Awarded D. S. C.	First Lieutenant Nelson, Jr.
2nd Lieutenant Harry H. Webb	1919, from Santa Barbara, California. Air Service, A. E. F. Lost hand in line of duty in an explosion at Issoudun, France, result of an accident, May 10, 1918.	First Lieutenant well Rhett
Private Harry B. Welborne..	1906, from Murray Hill, N. J. 104th Engineers, 29th Division, A. E. F. Slightly gassed in action in Meuse-Argonne Offensive.
Major Edgar M. Whiting....	1904, from Marshall, Va. 77th F. A., A. E. F. Severely wounded in action near Fere-en-Tardenois, France, August 7, 1915.
Captain Thomas S. Whiting..	1917, from Hampton, Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Received five (or more) severe wounds and many smaller ones in action at Chateau Thierry, June 2, 1918. Decorated.	Corporal Harry J.
Private Richard F. Wierum.	1919, from Montclair, N. J. Co. "1," 107th Infantry, A. E. F. Wounded at ———, ———, 1918.
Major Frederick J. Williams.	1915, from Ridgewood N. J. Many months in Hospital, Trier, Germany, and in U. S. from effects of being gassed. Subsequently died at his Post at Camp Stotsenberg, P. I., from injury recd. while playing Polo.
Captain Rogers M. Wilson..	1911, from Savannah, Ga. Co. "L," 18th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action at Soissons, France, July 21, 1918, while commanding his battalion, and in Hospital many months. Decorated.
Lt. Colonel Jennings C. Wise.	1902, from Richmond, Va. While Major of 318th Infantry, 80th Div., A. E. F., he was slightly wounded in action in the Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Oct. 4, 1918.
1st Lieutenant Austin W. Woolford	1917, from Suffolk, Va. 307th Inf., 77th Div., A. E. F. Lost left arm in action, Oct. 4, 1918, in Meuse-Argonne Offensive. (Three wound stripes.)
1st Lieutenant William B. Yancey	1914, from Harrisonburg, Va. 51st Inf., M. G. Company, 6th Div., A. E. F. Wounded in action by H. E. Shell, Sept. 15, 1918.

CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Cont'd)—PRISONERS OF WAR 99

Major Rice McNutt Youell... 1914, from Norton, Va. (formerly Rockbridge Co., Va). 26th Inf., A. E. F. Painfully wounded, Oct. 1, 1918, in action near Verdun, France. Decorated.

PRISONERS OF WAR.

Captain Charles P. Nash.... 1917, from Alderson, W. Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Pilot in Aviation Squadron. While patrolling in Germany, September 13, 1918, lost his way, owing to weather conditions, was shot down and made prisoner, losing an arm. Was released after the Armistice. (See "Wounded.")

First Lieutenant John C. Nelson, Jr. 1918, from Norfolk, Va. 119th Infantry, 30th Division, A. E. F. Made prisoner at Bellcourt, France, September 29, 1918. Released immediately after the Armistice.

First Lieutenant R. Barnwell Rhett 1910, from Charleston, S. C. British Expeditionary Force. He was made a prisoner, March 28, 1918, while serving as Medical Officer of the Queen's Westminster Regiment, 56th Division. He was never wounded, but was slightly gassed, though he did not report sick. After the Armistice he was released by the Enemy. The British Government decorated him with the "Military Cross" for his splendid work on the battlefield, March 28, 1918, the day he was captured.

Corporal Harry J. Kittrell... 1916, from Mount Pleasant, Tenn. 117th Infantry, 30th Division. Wounded at Estrees, France. Captured, September 29, 1918, at Bellcourt, France, but recaptured same day by his own Company.

RECORD

104th Infantry, A. E. F., France,

Battalion, Tank Division, action at Moncel, France, 23, 1918.

While serving the duty, he was severely injured by gas and was recovered until the Armistice.

A. E. F. Severely wounded, 1918.

While commanding the 1st Battalion, 104th Infantry, near Fere-en-Terre, France, he was severely wounded and was so badly injured that he was awarded the Purple Heart.

California. Air Force. In line of duty, France, result of gas.

104th Eng. Battalion. Slightly gassed during the Meuse-Argonne Offensive.

A. E. F. near Fere-en-Terre, 1918.

Marine Corps, A. E. F. (severe) wounded in action at Bellefleur, France. Decorated.

"1," 107th Infantry, France, many months in the U. S. from which he subsequently died. He was originally from P. I., from the Philippines.

"L," 18th Infantry, wounded in action, 1918, while in Hospital.

While Major of the 1st Infantry, A. E. F., he was wounded in the Meuse-Argonne, 1918.

1st Inf., 77th Div., action, Oct. 4, 1918. (Three times wounded.)

1st Inf., M. G. Wounded in action, 1918.