

VMI cadets and alumni may now purchase test prep course vouchers from The Princeton Review at BIG DISCOUNTS!

How it Works:

1. Browse the list of test prep course options below. Open the link for the course you are interested in and open “View Schedule” to find class options. Identify a class with a start date that is at least 2 weeks away, as you need time to receive your materials by mail. Write down the course ID number.
2. Email LTC Sheikh at sheikhas@vmi.edu with your: email (cadets and employees must use their vmi.edu email), first and last name, home address, test type (LSAT, GRE, etc.), phone number, and course ID.
3. Check your email to see if you have received course approval; LTC Sheikh will submit your information to Cadet Accounting.
4. Submit your payment through Post View; forward the confirmation email to LTC Sheikh.
5. LTC Sheikh will enroll you in the class (do NOT enroll yourself).

We recommend selection and purchase of your course from the links below as soon as possible so that we can reserve your seat in that class!

Online Student Portal (shown for MCAT)

(GRE, GMAT, LSAT and DAT students also have an online student portal, not shown here)

The Princeton Review provides a state-of-the-art online student portal that integrates recorded lessons, hundreds of drills, and an in-depth analysis for every test question. This allows students to identify not only why the answers are credited, but also the likely mistakes the students made for incorrect answers.

You Scored: 126

Students receive personalized score reports that detail performance and pinpoint strengths and weaknesses. The scoring engine then provides recommendations on review lessons and drills based on each unique student's performance by subject and question type.

You Scored: 128

The online student portal also features the ultimate in convenience and will be available to students 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and accessible anywhere there is an internet connection.

Satisfaction Guarantee

If a student is not satisfied with The Princeton Review course for any reason, they can continue to work with us again free of charge. Students will have the option to extend their Online Portal Access for an additional 120 days (365 for MCAT) or join an existing Live Online retail course free of charge.
