

VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE
Lexington, Virginia

GENERAL ORDER)
NUMBER 01)

28 September 2021

Operating Rules of the Institute Schedule

1. Intent, Philosophy, and Operating Guidance of the Institute Schedule.

- A. Intent. To provide guidance and a basic framework that facilitates Cadet success at VMI.
- B. Philosophy. The Institute Schedule sets the tempo of the cadets' day according to a specific operational blueprint. It provides guidance identifying where the cadet will be and which activities are authorized to be scheduled (and by whom) during specific periods. Constructs such as Academic Class Periods, Dean's Time, Commandant's Training Time, Superintendent's Training Time, Evening Study Period, Dean's, ROTC's and Commandant's Saturdays, and the like are designed to fence blocks of time for specific activities, to discipline the members of the Institute against encroaching on others, and to add discipline, structure, and clarity to the cadets' life.
- C. Operating Guidance. Provides a schedule of events to balance a Cadet's Academic, Athletic, Military and life activities in order to participate in a full VMI experience and qualify for graduation. When a cadet is required to be at more than one place at the same time, it is incumbent upon the cadet to de-conflict the situation prior to that time – asking forgiveness for an absence after the fact is not an acceptable course of action.

2. Weekday Schedule (1900 Sun - Taps Fri).

- A. Reveille. (0700, Mon - Fri). All cadets (with the exception of those involved in ROTC designated physical training or authorized athletic/club practice) must be formed for Breakfast Roll Call (BRC).
- B. Breakfast Roll Call and Breakfast (0700 – 0750, Mon – Fri). This formation is mandatory for all cadets. Rats and cadets who have a first CP class march to Crozet Hall for this meal. All other cadets move to Crozet Hall on their own schedule based on when they have a free class period.
 - (1) Rats are marched back to barracks after breakfast by the cadre in company formation, receive brief information for the day, and are dismissed to prepare for the rest of the day.
 - (2) NCAA Stipulations for BRC.
All NCAA Teams will have the ability to schedule morning activities starting at 0600. When participating in morning activities, teams will be excused from the BRC formation, accountability will be performed by the team in a manner deemed acceptable by the Commandant. NCAA Athletes will be authorized in Crozet Hall and Barracks in athletic uniforms until 0800 on days where they are transitioning from practice.

- (3) ROTC Stipulations for BRC. When participating in morning PT, cadets will be excused from BRC formation and accountability will be performed by the respected ROTC program. ROTC cadets will be authorized in Crozet Hall in athletic uniform until 0800 on days they are transitioning from scheduled physical training.

C. Academic Class Periods (CP). (0800 – 1600, Mon – Fri). The primary duty for cadets during the Academic Class Periods is the attainment of excellence in the academic program. Cadets must attend all scheduled classes, laboratories, and examinations unless excused by the Superintendent, Dean of Faculty, or Post Physician. When the daily class schedules are swapped (i.e. Wednesday Classes held on a Thursday), the change will only cover the time frame and periods during the Academic Day (0800 – 1600). Academic Class Periods are scheduled as follows:

Attendance at classes scheduled during these times takes priority over all other activities. The Director of Intercollegiate Athletics is authorized to schedule that time for practice and other directly related activities in support of NCAA athletic teams. For those athletes that do not have 7th or 5th CP.

- D. Dean's Training Time (M 1105 - 1215). To be used for academic guest speakers, departmental meetings and advising, and other activities as prescribed by the Deputy Superintendent for Academics and Dean of the Faculty. In the event of forecasted inclement weather cancelling Rat Challenge on either Tuesday or Thursday, DPE may use Wednesday as a make-up day. Coordination between DPE and the Deputy Commandant for Operations (S3) will proceed as follows:
 - (a) On Monday afternoon prior to 1400, an operational decision will be made to move Tuesday Rat Challenge events to Wednesday Military Duty based on inclement weather concerns.
